Women Veteran Speakers is the first speakers' agency of its kind offering exclusively exceptional women military veterans as event speakers, trainers, coaches and facilitators, from emerging up-and-comers to polished experts. Our CEO, Linda Maloney, is a 20-year Navy veteran and former naval aviator, who launched Women Veteran Speakers in 2015.

The members of Women Veteran Speakers are accomplished leaders with an array of business, corporate, military and defense expertise, and more importantly offer valuable leadership insights, experiences and compelling perspectives not available elsewhere covering a diverse selection of topics and expertise, including leadership, sales strategies, small business and entrepreneurship, veteran issues and topics, education, work-life balance, faith, real estate, healthcare, technology, parenting, youth topics (STEM, Anti-bullying, Self Esteem) and much more.

WVS connects event with WVS members speaking engagements, training events, conferences, webinars, panels and forums. Women Veteran Speakers takes pride in offering experts who are appropriate for any event where the very best of our nation's military is desired.

Biography – Women Veteran Speakers CEO – Linda Maloney

Linda Maloney is an award-winning author, business owner, leadership development professional, speaker and former military aviator and officer. She spent 20 years in the Navy, first as an enlisted air traffic controller and then as a Naval Flight Officer, flying both the A-6 "Intruder" and EA-6B "Prowler." She was one of the first women in U.S. history to join a combat military flying squadron and received numerous military awards, including the distinguished air medal for combat, awarded for flights flown over Southern Iraq in support of the no-fly zone during her deployment to the Arabian Gulf. She also was the first woman to eject from a Martin Baker ejection seat from her A-6 aircraft in 1991 over the Atlantic Ocean. Linda speaks throughout the country on topics such as Passing Down a Legacy, Leadership & Women, Women & Non-traditional Careers, Margin & Life Balance, Transitioning from Military Leadership to Business Leadership, and Aviation for K-12 Groups.

Linda established Women Veteran Speakers in December 2015, inviting exclusively women military veterans – speakers, coaches, trainers, and facilitators. Linda’s award-winning book—Military Fly Moms ~ Sharing Memories, Building Legacies, Inspiring Hope [Tannenbaum Publishing], was published in 2012, and is a biographical collection of the inspiring true stories and photographs of seventy women who shared the same two dreams—becoming aviators in the military, and being moms.

Women Veteran Speakers – Our Members

Event planners agree that our nation’s military veteran speakers, trainers and coaches, with combat experiences and patriotic messages, unite and energize audiences, seminars and workshops and inspire attendees to pursue and achieve goals. When an audience’s industry is facing big challenges, military veteran speakers have the field-tested know-how to motivate, encourage and inspire them to overcome obstacles and thrive in difficult or challenging environments. With first-hand accounts of military operations, our speakers, trainers and coaches bring an authenticity that is often unmatched.

Our members are handpicked and exclusively invited to join WVS. They have been leaders at all levels, both in the military and in the corporate ranks. They tell real-life captivating stories and have incredible visual presentations. Combine that with the unique blend of a veteran perspective, the result is powerful and compelling.

Women Veteran Speakers - Testimonials

Women Veteran Speaker, Miyoko Hikiji, was excellent! We are very pleased with your service and would use you again in a heartbeat!*

William Moore

Director, Project New Hope

Women Veteran Speaker, Dianna Flett, could not have been a more perfect fit for us. We will be using your bureau in the future. We are already working on next year's conference. We will be in touch when we are ready to book our speaker. We would consider having Dianna again! We could have listened to Dianna for hours. She could not have been more on point for what our consultants and staff needed to hear. She was funny and resonated with the consultants.*

Christy DeWitt

Director of Business Development and Sales, Nomades

I found Women Veteran Speakers to be more than another speaker’s bureau. It is a community of different voices with common purpose, sharing the wisdom and national treasure that resides in the experience of the female veteran. It offers a ‘force multiplier’ effect to me as a bureau plank owner and professional speaker, showcasing my message and leveraging my marketing efforts.

Captain Karen Baetzel, USN, Retired

Principal, BattleAxe Consulting, Women Veteran Speaker Member

Women's Veteran Speakers highlights the real and important experience the woman veteran brings to bear, both booking highly experienced professional speakers and working with those breaking into the industry. They are professional, motivated and easy to work with as a speaker. I am grateful for their reach and energy to promote the exceptional and diverse talent women veterans bring to today's workforce.*

Shannon Huffman Polson

Author, Speaker, Former Women Veteran Speaker Member

Our company utilized Women Veteran Speakers for our Women's History Month Celebration. We invited one of the bureau's speakers (Tracy Crow) to be the keynote for an event hosted by our Veteran Employee Resource Group and the Medtronic Women's Network. The theme of the event was Personal Courage (focusing on women's leadership roles in the military and new roles in corporate America). Women Veteran Speakers provided a professional and very efficient process. They coordinated the planning, contracting, and other administrative functions. We were extremely satisfied with Tracy's keynote. Our employees felt inspired by her words....Rarely has a speaker that has come to Medtronic taken the time to talk and spend time with employees one on one after an event. She really made an impact during her visit to Medtronic. I am very glad we could make this happen.

Daryl Acker

Program Manager, Metronic Corporation

It was extremely easy to book a speaker through the Women Veteran Speakers. The speakers' bureau was extremely helpful when trying to find a speaker to match the specific needs of the audience. I would highly recommend using Women Veteran Speakers for your next event. The event speaker, Shannon Polson was excellent. She custom designed her presentation to optimize the needs of our organization. Her enthusiasm and inspirational message of how to lead from any seat was both invigorating and uplifting. Shannon's love for her country and for sharing her story of strength and courage made me proud to be an American. One of the best speakers I have had the honor of listening to.

DeAnn Galde

Natural Resources Conservation Service

Booking was quick and simple especially since we reached out just weeks before the event. It was comforting to know that a highly-qualified speaker was secured and ready to go within just a few days.

President/Event Producer, Hurlock Marketing Enterprises

Thanks so much for your response and thanks for recommending Elizabeth McCormick for our "Salute to Veterans" Gala for the Florida Association of Non-Profits. Elizabeth was outstanding and an absolute delight. Everyone in attendance was captivated by her dynamic and motivational message. Elizabeth's unique style of engaging the audience served our group beyond all our expectations. It was very moving to hear the combination of the very personal nature of her experience along with the broader theme of the possibilities available to us. I would not hesitate to recommend Elizabeth to any organization looking for a dynamic, motivational and highly engaging speaker. She left us all wanting more.
